3. President's Report on the Overview of the Association 2017-2018

The President, Professor Lilian M. Azzopardi presented an overview of advocacy and collaborations with partner organisations namely AACP, ACPE, AESGP, EPSA, EAHP, PGEU, EIPG and FP. In September 2017, a workshop was organised jointly with AACP and ACPE and the University of Malta on "Curriculum design and updating for clinical pharmacy teaching". A membership leaflet has been designed to present the four different membership schemes. The recipient of the 2017 EAFP Partnership for Faculty Education and Research Grant (PFER) was announced: Slavomir Kurhajec from Slovakia. Applications for the 2018 grant are open until 1 July 2018. Thirty five participants from 11 countries participated. The launch of the EAFP 2018 Position Paper was presented as a contribution of EAFP to support member organisations to obtain direction of relevant pillars in pharmacy education.
